Be prepared for summer and fall adventures!

As your troop gears up for exciting adventures this summer and fall, remember the Girl Scout motto: be prepared! Taking a few important steps now will help ensure a safe, successful, and fun-filled experience for everyone.

Before your trip or activity, please:

- Review the appropriate Safety Activity Checkpoints to ensure you are following all safety guidelines.
- Complete any required training for your planned activity.
- Submit any required trip or activity approval forms at least 30 days before your event.
- If your troop plans to raise additional funds to support your adventures, review the GSCO Financial Management Guide and follow the required fundraising procedures.

A little preparation goes a long way in creating memorable experiences for your girls.
